January Has Been SNOW much fun!

"An easy way to pick the wrong career is to put your Image above your Interests and Identity. Meaningful work Isn't about Impressing others. It's about expressing your values."

- Adam Grant

We hope that this snowy January has been one filled with some relaxation as we eased back into the swing of classes! This upcoming month is all about professional development. We have some great webinars planned that feature ways to leverage your Villanova HRD degree and how a career in HR can be fulfilling! Our annual Level Up HR Conference is also back and you will not want to miss the amazing speakers we have lined up.
