Welcome Back!

"It's okay to stop, reassess. But don't talk yourself out of trying. Keep going. Even Incrementally."

- Manoush Zomorodi

It is hard to believe that the Fall semester is already upon us! Beach days and lounging by a pool may soon be behind us, but this month will not be short of exciting activities to fill the end-of-summer void. Whether you are new to the program, in your final class, or somewhere in the middle, VUSHRM has an open spot for you. Cheers to you - for taking the time to better yourself as an HR professional! Sending good vibes to all this semester and we wish everyone the best of luck.

- Your VUSHRM Officers
